

J. H. McDONALD.

J. H. McDonald was born at Heber and inured to the plow and mines until his 25th year, at which time he took up the study of law and after three years under the tutorship of Wm. Buys he entered the University of Michigan, at Ann Arbor in 1892, and graduated on the 28th day of June 1904. At this time he has a law practice which reaches into many counties of the State. In Nov. 1901 he went to the British Isles on a mission and returned home in 1904, with an honorable release. He has held numerous offices in this county and takes an active part in politics.